STATE AND COAST.

Clipped From Our Exchanges Throughout the West.

Winter seems to be taking a place in the lap of spring at present.

Gen. Coxe ought to have learned by this time that no man who owns a ten thousand dollar horse can ever become a great socialistic reformer.

John Stewart, of Eugene, expects to drive about 2,000 cattle over the mountains about the first of the month.

A. Todd, of Forest Grove, has been given a government contract to survey township 22 south, range 10 west.

Quite a number of fine Guernsey cattle belonging to Banker Bush, of Salem, had to be killed recently under orders of the state veterinarian, who found them to be suffering from tuberculosis.

The salmon run has thus far been very light this spring. The salmon catchers of this valley anticipate that they will be more plentiful as soon as the water in the Columbia and John Day rivers recede.

It was rumored in Eugene Saturday that a party of 15 men from Fairmount, Creswell and Cottage Grove would leave today for the Bohemia mining district to search for the bodies of Downing and Weaver, the lost men.

The total of patients and employees at the insane asylum is now 1042. This, of course, includes morphine and opium fiends and people of good families, who ought to be in the state penitentiary.

In the Okecho mining district five placer claims are being worked, employing 13 men. There are also two men at work in the McAllister quartz mine. There is an abundance of water for placer mining, and a good deal of dirt will be moved this season.

The Coos Bay News is authority for the statement that Charles Millir, the populist candidate for representative, recently spoke for four hours at one meeting at Jefferson.

The severe frosts the nights of the 8th and 9th, that did not do us much damage through Southern Oregon as was feared. This was owing to the dry atmosphere.

The Grant county Eagle says that Sam Palmer will cross the northern part of the county with 50,000 head of sheep, after shearing which he will drive east of the Rockies.

The Eugene Register says another pack of clothing and blankets belonging to Downing and Weaver have been found. These men were lost in the mountains before the last heavy snow storm. All hope of finding them alive has been given up.

V. Kratz, of Portland, has offered the people of Eugene to them a warehouse and a flouring-mill with a capacity of 100 barrels of flour a day, provided the people of Eugene will loan him $15,000 for five years, the money to be used in building the works.

Justice Batchelor, of Salem, was called to Buena Vista Saturday to hold an inquest on the body of Caroline Dietz, found floating in a lake there middle of the week. The verdict attributed her death to suicide from illness and weakness, and exonerated the family, upon whom it seems some censure had rested.

There was an interesting lawsuit at Independence last week, wherein Mrs. Riter was sued by Mrs. Esteb for $200 damages for slander. The verdict of the jury was that the plaintiff have $1 damages and the costs of the suit, which amounted to about $100. There were about 60 witnesses examined. It was alleged by Mrs. Esteb that Mrs. Riter publicly accused her of the theft of a pair of scissors.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Dr. Applewhite Shoots Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon and Then Cuts His Own Throat.

The Corvallis Gazette gives the following full particulars of the Applewhite tragedy, which occurred near that city last Friday evening:

"The usual quietness of our city was thrown into quite a flurry of excitement when Lon Locke arrived from his place about two miles north of town, about 7 o'clock Friday evening and stated that Dr. Applewhite, of this city, had attempted the life of Charles Kenyon and wife, and immediately Mrs. Lee and Wilson and Sheriff Osborn and a large posse of men were at the scene. The recent Applewhite-Kenyon case is too well known to state in detail here, but from Kenyon himself a Gazette reporter learned the following:

"Having received threatening letters from Applewhite, I came to town to-day and bought a revolver, leaving my wife at Locke's, and stopping for her on my return home. Just as we were turning into our gate, Applewhite, who was in ambush behind an oak tree, stepped out, saying, 'I've got you now,' and commenced firing. Several shots were exchanged, but my revolver refused to go off several times. My wife jumped out of the wagon and screamed, 'I'm shot in the hip,' when Applewhite grabbed her, holding her between him and myself, and backed off up the lane still firing. After receiving a wound in the leg, I drove on to Locke's, and being very faint from loss of blood, sent Locke to town for help."

WATERLOO BUDGET.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXPRESS:
Noting in your last issue the demise of C. Rank, and, like others, filled with rejoicing thereat, we eagerly embrace this opportunity of appearing before the public. Never having written for a paper we trust you will kindly bear with our infirmities. We may not be able to give accounts of the mashes we make in the vicinity of "Fir Grove" nor the amount of "grubbing" done in Oregon annually, yet we promise your columns shall not be all blank if we be permitted to furnish the filling; so here goes for a starter:

The beautiful Oregon mist, is missing.
Many campers are here and on the way.
Mr. Hull, of Crawfordville, visited his daughter, Mrs. Fred Gross, Sunday.
Miss Lou Ritter is spending a few days with relatives and friends.
Times are improving and we hope the mill will start next week, as reported.
Messrs. Charlton and Martin were here looking for a saloon site Saturday.
Sunday next the Rock Hill nine will play the Waterloo scrub nine a game of ball. Waterloo is "in it" this season, the boys having no work to do, and would not do it if they had, practice daily.
There appears to be no end of church trouble here. Some one wants to run the church on the "high tariff" plan (only one preacher), while others are in favor of "free trade." It has been the painful part of the writer to hear the subject thoroughly cussed and discussed and it makes us ache.
The coroner should be notified of a ghastly find that was unearthed here a few days since. Dr. Fellows pronounced it the carcass of the Waterloo "Boom," or our own blasted ambitions. After the water in the Santiam goes down we look for more developments.
Coxey (or Cooney, as the swell pops here call him,) is getting a rest in our town; he don't seem to fill the bill exactly. He has made no shipment of paper money, or any other kind for that matter, to the bosses and now it is "down with the traitor."
Somers and Stowe were here as announced last Saturday. The audience was a mixed one and went away in a worse condition. Somers furnished the figures and Stowe the wind. They are able men, but misguided. Attached to the probi delegation they would be shining lights.
Like our predecessor, we may not be able to say much of our neighbors, yet we believe the good have their reward laid up above, and the wicked shall enjoy the fruits of their labors while here, if we have our way—and allow us to state, that old, gray-haired man ought to attend to his little ones and not dip in the dish of the young, thereby causing discontent and heartaches to the extent he has in the past, or he will be visited by that branch of Waterloo society known as the "egg caps." Let each attend strictly to his poultry-yard and there will be no exposure; yes and when the star boarder comes back to town, boys we meet at the bridge for orders.
The Advents are jubilant over the hard times and rejoice at the manner in which the Lord is dishing out his justice to the people. Poor deluded mortals! It must be sweet to be so ignorant, yet it is painful to hear old parties blamed for the work of the Father, although it is a change as most people consider all parties controlled by the devil or Pennoyer, but we note that those who say it is the work of the Lord, take active part in debates, and if it be so, how can the pops change the times? Is the query of D. O. LITTLE.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1225 Harrison street Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlin's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism pains and swellings extant. For sale by N. W. South, Druggist.
